

Al Hassan scouts for talent at career fair

Times News Service

MUSCAT | In support of Oman's drive to ensure broader and more challenging job opportunities for the youth, the Al Hassan Group of Companies recently participated in a three-day Career and Training Fair held at the Sultan Qaboos University (SQU).

Students who have missed out on this opportunity can log onto www.al-hassan.com for further information," says Maqbool Ali Salman, managing director of the Al Hassan Group. Commenting on the group's human resources policy, Salman said: "Al Hassan regards its people as the most precious asset.

Investing in people

"Al Hassan continues to invest in its people to improve the performance of the organisation and provides several opportunities for their career development."

Oman-based Al Hassan Group runs over 11 wholly owned and associate companies in the Sultanate and the United Arab Emirates and has three main business activities contracting, trading and manufacturing.
